Hebrews 10:19-39

He is risen! He is risen indeed, alleluia! What blessed hope we have in the assurances of Easter!

Often when we have these great days of celebration in the church year, it can be quite a jarring come-down back to the realities of daily life. We spend Sunday full of triumph, joy and rejoicing and then Monday we're right back to routines, schedules and the challenges we face.

A section towards the end of today's reading stood out to me as I considered this:

"Therefore do not throw away your confidence, which has a great reward. For you have need of endurance, so that when you have done the will of God you may receive what is promised. For, 'Yet a little while, and the coming one will come and will not delay; but my righteous one shall live by faith, and if he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him.' But we are not of those who shrink back and are destroyed, but of those who have faith and preserve their souls." (Hebrews 10:35-39)

So while we might be bogged down by traffic, and to-do lists and the cares of the world, we can remember that as our Savior returned from the dead, so He will too return again to bring us home to Him someday.

*God's blessings,
